

Ho'oponopono Workshop

Healing Forgiveness Practice from Hawai'i as taught by Celeste Yacononi from Santa Fe, NM

Ancient Hawai'ian Healing

Photo by Nick Coombs

Celeste Yacononi travels from Santa Fe, NM to share this ancient Hawai'ian healing practice of forgiveness. Through prayer and chant you'll be offered the possibility of deep forgiveness for self and others and the freedom that comes from letting go.

Choose to gift yourself with this powerful healing practice!

Ho'oponopono

I'm so sorry, I love you. Please forgive me, I thank you.

Ho'oponopono means, "to make right."

It is a Hawaiian healing process based on taking total responsibility for the world we create.

By clearing ourselves with love and forgiveness,
we clear the world around us.

The words with intention are vibrations that break up old patterns of fear and negativity.

and allow our true nature of love to shine.

Think it. Say it. Sing it.

Sunday, February 7, 2010.

2:00 - 6:00 p.m.

$75 Pre-Paid Registrations are Required.

Please Pre-Register with Cameron at cpcreativeprocess@sbcglobal.net

Sacred Arts Holistic Center

3148 West Blvd.

Cleveland, OH 44111

www.sacredartsholisticcenter.com

SACRED
ARTS
HOLISTIC CENTER

3148 West Blvd.
Cleveland, OH 44111